The Council of M. D. Keoma met in a special meeting on January 31, 1927, the following members being present: Messrs. Donkin, Rummel, Bates and Walker.

The Secretary submitted the Auditor's statement for the year 1926, which was accepted.

After discussion it was decided that the arrears of taxes should be dealt with under the Tax Recovery Act, and by default, unless satisfactory arrangements are made with the Secretary or Council.

Under section 202 of the M. D. Act, the date for the ratification meeting was fixed as Monday, February 13, the date for polling if any, February 28th, and the first meeting of the new Council, March 14th next.

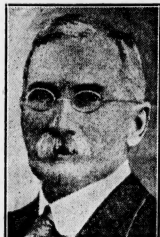

On motion, Mr. J. P. Sheppard was named as an alternative Returning Officer in the event that Mr. Lester will be unable to act.

On motion a pay sheet for Mr. Sheppard for dividend number three, was passed as $24.50.

Mr. Bates formally resigned his office as Councillor, which had another year to run. On motion the Council tendered him a hearty vote of thanks for the time and work he had put into his division during his term of office.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to arrange for the truck to be stored and overhauled in accordance with the terms submitted by McCulloch Hardware Co.

FRANK J. EWING,
Secretary-Treasurer

PREMIER J. HERTZOG
Prime Minister of South Africa, who has reintroduced the bill for a proposed new flag for South Africa, which does not contain the Union Jack design. When first introduced this bill caused such controversy that it was withdrawn.

A meeting of the Strathmore School Board was held on Thursday last, February 3, 1927, followed by the Annual Ratepayers meeting an hour later.

The report of the principal showed that very satisfactory progress was being made by the pupils, and that a lot of good work had also been done by the Board, showing the income for the year had made it their object to study both economy and efficiency.

The following reports of the principal and trustees will speak for themselves, and next week we hope to publish the Financial Statement of the Board, showing the income for the year, and the various sources from which it is derived, and the expenditures for the same period.

To the Ratepayers,

Strathmore S. D. No. 1587:

I herewith submit the following report of the Strathmore Schools during the year 1926.

The number of days during which the school was kept in operation was 121 in the Spring term and 73 in the Fall term, a total of 194 days.

The total number of children attending during the year was 238, of whom 116 were boys and 122 girls. This is the greatest number of pupils taught in the Strathmore Schools since 1921.

The average daily attendance for the Spring term was 159; for the Fall term 170, and for the year, 164.3.

The greatest number on the roll at any one time was 261 or an average of 258 per teacher.

The classification of pupils was as follows: Grade 1, 30; Grade II, 16; Grade III, 21; Grade IV, 12; Grade V, 34; Grade VI, 25; Grade VII, 16; Grade VIII, 19; Grade IX, 35; Grade X, 17; Grade XI, 14.

The following is a list of subjects taught, with the number studying each: Arithmetic 172; spelling 172; Reading 172; Composition and grammar 172; citizenship and history 172; English 172; writing 172; hygiene 172; nature study 146; art 172; agriculture 26; physical training 172.

The pupils of the High School were taught, and the number studying each was as follows: Literature 1, 35; Literature 2, 13; Literature 3, 13; Algebra 1, 40; Geometry 2, 14; Composition 1, 40; Composition 2, 12; Latin 1, 12; Latin 2, 15; French 1, 26; French 2, 10; French 3, 4; Art 1, 35; Chemistry 1, 14; Arithmetic 14; Geography 1, 15; Agriculture 1, 4; History of English Literature 2; History 1, 35; History 2, 15; History 3, 13; Physics 1, 21; General Science 42.

At the Public Schools, reports on the progress of the pupils are sent out monthly, and in the High School every two months. The staff is ready at all times to discuss with parents and guardians the progress of pupils.

At the Departmental examinations in June fifteen pupils wrote the examination for entrance to High School. Of these fourteen passed. In the High School examinations, there were thirty candidates. Two hundred and ten units were attempted, and credits were obtained in one hundred and fifty-four. This is 73%. John Garrett had the highest average mark, 74% for eight units. Gladys Stephens passed in nine units with an average of 71%. I respectfully suggest that some recognition should be given to pupils who achieve outstanding success at these examinations.

There are three records of perfect attendance during the year: Iva Schultz, Harold Freeman, and Margaret Freeman.

The staff wishes to thank the School Board and ratepayers for their operation during the past year, and to hope for a continuation of the same throughout the current year.

I have the honor to be,

Yours obedient servant,

S. H. CROWTHER

(c) There have been no resignations from the Board during the past year.

(d) There have been no engagements entered into by the present Board. Those entered upon them by their predecessors are the payment of Principal and Interest of a Debenture bond of $25,000.00, issued in 1919, with interest at 6 1/2% per annum, and payable in ten years. Seven payments have been made on this debenture, leaving $7,000.00 principal and accruing interest still to be paid. $750.00 $97.50

There have been twelve regular meetings of the Board during the year, and three special meetings. J. A. French attended fifteen meetings, T. E. Wright twelve, P. B. Young ten, M. S. Hirtle ten.

No record has been kept of the number of visits made by the Trustees to the school.

SCHEMOLL CO. $30

During the month of January there were 191 pupils in attendance at the school. Of these, 68 attended every day. The daily average attendance was 162.6, and the percentage of attendance 85.07. Sickness accounts for comparatively low percentage of attendance.

A large number of pupils have taken the opportunity offered by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics to start a correspondence with children in other parts of the Empire. This correspondence is also awarding a certain number of scholarships to the High School pupils of the Province in order to enable them to attend University. These pupils must be the children of soldiers killed or disabled in the Great War.

Nominations were held at the Town Hall on Monday, from 11 o'clock until noon.

Mr. A. D. Shrimpton and Richard Bailey submitted their resignations as Councillors. Mr. Shrimpton to be a candidate for the majority, and Mr. Bailey, who, for personal reasons wished to retire from the civic arena.

Dr. T. W. Moore, George Quinn and Harry Miller, were again nominated, and again agreed to serve if the "old war horses" Councillor would reconsider his decision, and come back into the fold.

Mr. Bailey finally connected, and with the addition of James Saunders, who had served previously on the Council Board, was completed, only to await the noon hour, when Mr. Shrimpton became his Worship Elect.

The members of the Council were very much pleased with the results and look forward to conducting the municipal business under exceedingly favorable circumstances.

The financial affairs of the Town are in fine shape, and the members, all of whom are Mr. James Saunders, were on the Board last year, and worked together so harmoniously that their results were obtained for the citizens.

The nominations for the School Board were of the three retiring members, J. A. French, who was chairman last year, P. B. Young, and M. S. Hirtle, and another nomination presented was by Mr. Frank Seales.

Since nomination day, Mr. Seales has retired, hence, like the Councillors, the retiring members of the School Board were also elected by acclamation.

The Secretary was instructed to write the Dept. of Public Works and ask them what they intended doing towards fixing up the abandoned location of the Calgary Medicine Hat Highway through the Municipal District this year.

A report from the Provincial Inspector was read to the Council concerning his inspection of the Hamlet of Carseland. It was accepted by the Council.

WIFE'S GARTER SPORTED AS TIE

MORPETH, Ont.—A woman's fancy garter, found after her husband's neck nearly broke up a conservative wedding anniversary party here.

E. N. Rawlinson, a farmer, has been in the habit of wearing a "slingshot" model necktie, one which is already tied in a bow with a rubber band to go around the collar.

The other day while Mrs. Rawlinson dressed for a party, she hung one of her fancy garters on her husband's dresser and he in turn took it for one of the newfangled neckties he had received for Christmas. It was of blue elastic trimmed in pink with an azure blue bow.

During the party card games Mrs. Rawlinson finally got to the same table with her husband. She had noticed the laughing and joking at his table all evening and as she sat down opposite him and beheld her garter reposing on his Adam's apple, she nearly fell off her chair. Mr. Rawlinson says the garter fits snugly and does not strangle as ordinary neckties do.

THE I.O.D.E. AND CHILDREN OF THE EMPIRE

— (Junior Branch) —

Last Autumn the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, announced a competition for a Christmas Card drawing, offering a prize of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to the prizewinner, but stipulating that the Committee might withhold the prize if no entry reached a sufficiently high standard in the estimation of the judges. Unfortunately the judges, both members of the Order and experts with whom the Committee consulted, have decided that no entry deserves this prize. The Committee very much regrets having to announce this decision, and hopes that another year entries may be received which will fully justify the Committee in awarding the prize.

ARMAND LAVIGNE
of Quebec, Conservative member of Parliament, who has been elected to sit on the committee which meets at Ottawa, about the third week in February to thresh out the leadership of the Conservative party.

MAJ.-GEN. H. A. PANET who may become Major-General Macbrien as chief of Military and Naval Branches of Department of National Defence, Ottawa, whose nomination was a surprise to the Government.

HEARD ON THE STREET

A rich eccentric man died. The clergyman who was young and new to the parish thought it a fitting opportunity to call and comfort the widow. "You must not grieve," he told her. "The body that lies here is not your husband. It is merely a husk—an empty shell—the nut has gone to heaven."

"I ought to say something about the expenditure in this house," said the clergyman. "I make the money—don't I?"

"Yes," retorted his wife. "You make the money, but, remember, I make it stretch."

Every time a woman cries it up sets me, because I am a bachelor," said Jim Swanson.

"If it upsets you because you are a bachelor," said Spence Hughes, "it also upsets me, because I soon will be a married man."

Bill Wilkinson says he has wanted for a long time to hear of some man who mortgaged his automobile to buy a house.

Gene Giroux to Wilfred Gardner: "Gimme five of those Valentines—'You're the only girl I ever loved.'"

Old Crustleigh: "How dare you, air, kiss my daughter on the hotel piazza last night?"

Young Nerry: "Well, now that I've seen her by daylight, I wonder myself."

"Love," says Tony Grouan, "is like getting drunk; marriage is like the headache the next morning, and divorce is the aspirin tablet."

Bill Tierney says that one advantage that a married lady has over a maiden lady, is that she doesn't have to worry about what people think of her.

A lady walking up Second Street, said to her lady friend: "I don't compromise with Satan about nothing, I confess I've got so I don't wear but three petticoats."

Mary Ann: "Listen, ma'am, the oil stove has gone out."

Mistress: "Well, light it again."

Mary Ann: "Sure and I can't ma'am. It's gone out through the roof."

Father to youngster, just put to bed: "Now, what are you crying for?"

Son: "I wanna drink."

Father: "So do I—go to sleep."

Percy Parish: "No matter where you go there are women everywhere—in banks, barber shops, stores, street cars—driving automobiles, swimming women, women everywhere you go."

John Cusack: "Did you ever try looking in the mirror?"

Jack Taylor: "While I was in Paris I paid five pounds in tips alone."

Pete Teller: "You must have lived there a long while, Jack."

Said the guest, upon approaching his host's home: "Ah, there are some of your family on the balcony. I suppose that girl in the short dress is your daughter, the man in riding breeches is your son, and the woman in the tea gown is your charming wife?"

Said the host: "No, you are wrong. The girl in the short dress is my mother; the young fellow in the riding breeches is my wife, and the woman in the tea gown is my twelve-year-old daughter, who likes to dress up in her grandmother's old dresses."

Lady: "Why didn't you kiss the maid when she left?"

"The kid: 'I was afraid she'd slap me like she did daddy.'"

Nervous Woman (to persistent hobo): "If I give you a piece of pudding, you'll never return, will you?"

Hobo: "Well, lady, you know your pudding better than I do."

In Plain Words

Spence Hughes: "Your pneumatic contrivance has ceased to function."

Motorist: "Er—what?"

Spence: "I say, your tubular air container has lost its rotundity."

Motorist: "I didn't quite get it."

Spence: "The cylindrical apparatus which supports your vehicle is no longer inflated."

Motorist: "But—"

Spence: "The elastic fabric surrounding the circular frame whose successive revolutions bear you onward in space has not retained its pristine roundness."

Motorist: "Would you kindly—"

Small Boy: "Hey, Mister, you got a flat tire?"

"You are looking well."

"Yes, I have given up drinking."

"When did you start?"

"This morning."

"Hear they got a new dentist in Calgary," remarked Pete the cow-puncher, on a visit to Cheadle. "How do you get along with him?"

"Well," drawled the host, "he turned the air drill into me, but I escaped the foot cast and limp in the dynamite."

Jim Weir, in Gaiterby & Fisher's description from his own experience: "I'm afraid, madam, we show you all of our stock of linoleum, but we could get more from our factory?"

Customer: "Well, perhaps you had better. You see, I want a very neat pattern, and quite small. Just a little square for my tiled cage."

"Mother, is our new maid a German?"

"Why, no, dear; why do you ask?"

"Well," said the little girl, "I heard pap speak to her in the hall last night, and he said, 'Goodnight, Han.'"

Casey Nerring says: "If you save money, you are a grouch. If you spend it, you are a loser. If you get it, you are a grafter. If you can't get it, you are a bum. So what the heck's the use?"

Young lady: "Look at Mr. Parish on that ladder at the post office; I am afraid he's losing his equilibrium."

Second lady: "If you were a lady you wouldn't notice such a thing."

Bill Wilkinson: "I says here in the paper that you can get a good wife in Samoa for three dollars. Isn't that outrageous to three clergymen at once?"

Bill Tierney: "Oh, I don't know. A good wife is worth that much."

Grandma: "Louise, I cannot have you reading novels on Sunday."

Cosie: "But, Grandma, this one is all right. It's all about a girl who was married to three clergymen at once."

"There's a good picture here we ought to see."

"One of Rembrandt's."

"Let's go. I haven't been to Hattie's Theatre for two weeks."

John Cusack tells a story about two of his friends who were Scotchmen.

"I'll bet sometime I can play under you longer than you can," said Jack.

"It is a go," said Randy.

"Police are still searching for the bodies."

"You say your ancestors were all killed in the Wars of the Roses, Miss Fitzgibbon?"

"Oh, yes. Indeed, for several generations the family was extinct."

The Calgary street car service is rotten. Always overcrowded.

"Yes, but father, you got a seat didn't you?"

"Yes, but your poor mother had to stand all the way out to Killam."

PACIENT-LOVING LON.

DONORS SEE COLDSTREAM GUARDS OFF TO CHINA

LONDON, Eng.—Patient-loving Londoners had war reminiscences when the Coldstream Guards, of which the King is an honorary colonel, marched with their band playing and color flying, from Wellington barracks through Parliament square and over Westminster Bridge to Waterloo station, where they embarked for Southampton to board transports for China.

The Labor party is making a big political issue of the Chinese situation. It is arranging for demonstrations throughout the country on February 15 in support of a peaceful settlement and "to help the Chinese people in their demands for national independence and freedom."

The former Labor Premier, Ramsey MacDonald, will be the chief speaker at a London demonstration on that date.

The weekend will see the embarkation of more than 6,000 troops, who are being sent to China, as the Government has reiterated again and again, to protect British life and property only if they are endangered by aggressive acts of the Chinese. Additional airplanes, according to the report, also are ready for shipment to the Far East.

It was the band of the famous regiment which delighted the people at the Calgary Exhibition last July, not only with their charming music but splendid exhibition of marching.

WAS BALACLAVA VETERAN

VEVAL, Ind.—Thomas O'Day, aged 92 years, who is thought to be the last of the band who took part in the battle of Balaklava, immortalized in Tennyson's "The Charge of the Light Brigade," is dead here. Mr. O'Day was born in Ireland.

IS YOUR WILL RIGHT?

A man who takes these three precautions will secure real peace of mind about his will.

1. Have a solicitor draw the will. That saves the danger of litigation made possible by technical irregularity.
2. Discuss its practical provisions with this Company. Our wide experience in Executorship might suggest a more practical method of achieving the result in mind.

GOLD BASIS LINKS U.S.A. AND CANADA IN CLOSER BONDS

Return to the gold standard in Canada will link Canada closer to the United States in trade and financial relations, declares J. Courtland Elliott, young Canadian economist, in an article in the New York Times Analyst.

Mr. Elliott says: "Quite apart from the stability which the addition of the Canadian link to the chain of gold will give to international trade relations, the return to the gold standard is of particular significance to the United States. In recent years Canada has become the greatest source of imports into the U.S.A., as well as the second best customer for American exports, and the aggregate trade is now worth over a billion dollars annually. Even with the pronounced depreciation in Canadian exchange in 1920 and 1921, the interdependence of the two countries was strikingly demonstrated; and it would have required more than the disturbing and aggravating influence of a dislocated Canadian dollar to alter the customary channels of trade of the mutual reliance to the two countries upon each other's products. Nevertheless, the restoration of parity in the currencies removes a stumbling block in North American trade and assures a continuance of these profitable and important trade relations."

Gold Standard and Financial Institute

In addition, Canada's return to gold parity portends a growing financial intimacy between the countries in two directions: (1) in the cultivation of a uniform securities market; and (2) in promoting the resumption of the New York money markets to Canadian financial requirements.

Before the war 75 per cent. of Canadian foreign borrowings were in London, and neither in Canada nor in the United States was there an adequate market for Canadian securities.

The inability of Great Britain to provide Canadian capital requirements during and since the war has resulted in the creation of a distributive organization and securities market in Canada, closely allied to a corresponding market in the United States.

Canada has come as a result of active American participation in Canadian bond flotations. Since 1914 over four billion dollars of bonds have been underwritten in Canada and, in addition, institutional and private buying of Canadian securities have reached very large proportions in the United States.

Indeed the volume of private American investment in Canada is larger than in any other country, amounting to about $2,000,000,000, or over 25 per cent. of the total foreign investment of the United States.

"Hitherto the fluctuations of Canadian exchange and the absence of the safeguards which an effective gold standard would insure in full payment of principal and interest have introduced an element of uncertainty into the investment relations—especially with reference to 'Canadian payment on gold'—bonds—and the market has been narrowed somewhat on that account."

YESTERDAY'S

Yesterday's prison is shut and barred; Yesterday's dead are laid away; Yesterday's judgments, harsh and hard, Endure forever yesterday.

Yesterday's wanderers no more roam; Yesterday's fevered pulse is still; Yesterday's outbreaks are all home. Home from the desert bleak and chill.

Yesterday's wounds are cleansed and healed; Yesterday's tears are wiped away; Yesterday's battles are all home. Vanished forever yesterday.

Yesterday's dross—how poor! how poor! Passed as clouds from the sky above; Yesterday's jewels alone remain. Yesterday's Faith and Hope and Love.

THE BIG HORSE SALE MARCH 8

The Strathmore Agricultural Society has completed arrangements to hold the Second Annual Horse Sale on Tuesday, March 8th. President Jones and the board of directors have used excellent judgment in arranging the date far enough in advance to give those who will have horses to sell, an opportunity to fit them properly so that upon the day of the sale they will be presented to be horse buyers in the best possible condition.

The holding of an annual Horse Sale may become of very great value to the farmers of the district, if they will study the market and learn what type of horses the outside buyers are anxious to secure.

Experienced horsemen are almost unanimous in stating that within the next few years, that horse values will materially advance.

The holding of the sale gives the local breeders an opportunity of selling their surplus stock to outside buyers, who will come in larger numbers each year if these sales apply the type of animal that the market demands.

An early entry is very much desired by the Secretary, Fred J. Dunn, in order that necessary arrangements may be completed, and full advantage obtained in connection with the advertising campaign that will be conducted.

The entry fee is only the nominal sum of one dollar per head, and the commission for completing the sale only four per cent.

The High River sale last year was an unqualified success, and they are expecting to repeat again this year. At the last meeting of the High River Board of Trade, George Melville, president of the Horse Sale, stated that the entries were already larger than last year, the quality much better, particularly in regard to the age of the animals, the majority being young and weighing from 1200 to 1600 pounds.

Two days is also holding a big sale this year, and there is absolutely no reason why the Strathmore sale can not equal or even surpass the efforts of those who live toward it. Everyone put in a good word for the Strathmore Horse Sale, and help make it a real annual feature for the Bow Valley district.

Every new dollar brought in from outside points helps every business man in the district, if not the day of the sale during the current year.

Don't leave it all to Geo. H. Jones and Fred J. Dunn. Boost the sale if you cannot do anything else.

MAYOR ELECT SHRIMPION IS VERY FORTUNATE

Monday was nomination day, and when the hour had passed, returning Officer T. M. Weir announced that A. D. Shrimpton had been selected mayor by acclamation.

This is a very personal compliment to the mayor elect, since it is remembered that Mr. H. W. B. Bell, has occupied the chair for the past four years, and he also had been returned by acclamation two years ago.

Several councillors have also served longer than Mr. Shrimpton. Mayor-elect Shrimpton is to be congratulated upon the fact that the council for 1927, will have but one new member. Mr. James Saunders, who returns to the council circle, bringing with him considerable municipal experience, thus guaranteeing the continuity of purpose of the 1926 council.

Mr. Saunders is an enthusiast in regards to parks and trees, and the ratepayers may anticipate some real park development and care, if the new councillor can impress upon the major elect and the old councillors the necessity of digging down a little deeper into the municipal purse for this very important work.

When Ex-Mayor Bell announced that he must retire for personal reasons, it caused no little misapprehension regarding what might happen. Several of the councillors might have been seized with a desire to move the public in the position of chief, which would have created several vacancies, and the mayor might have found himself supported or attacked by inexperienced legislators.

Instead of having to face such conditions, Mayor-elect Shrimpton steps into office fully conversant with the moods and plans of his associates and in touch with the policies under advisement in 1926, which had been planned to carry out in 1927, with the least possibility of friction of any kind.

The Mayor-elect is beginning the year under the most favorable conditions, with the financial affairs in the best condition for many years, and his friends are quite certain that the good work will be continued under his guidance.

GET THE BUSINESS WHEELS IN OPERATION

The business men have been carrying a big load during the past season, owing to the large amount of credit that it has been found necessary to grant to their customers.

The time has now arrived when everyone should make a very special effort to liquidate all current accounts.

The payment of these accounts will make each one feel better, and the impetus that will be given to business, in general cannot be over estimated.

The payment gives the business man a chance to pay the wholesaler, the wholesaler squares up with the manufacturer, and the manufacturer cleans up with the banker, and the wheels of industry are lubricated with the oil of hope and confidence.

The direct benefit reaches back to every resident; just try it and watch the results. The payment of a small account apparently a trifling matter, and it would be if it was only one.

But when business men have accumulation of hundreds of small accounts, the caring for which entails endless and needless work, using up energy which might well be used to much better use, and with results that would be visibly beneficial to the whole community.

DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARDS ARE BEING ADVOCATED

In Ontario, Township School Boards are being advocated. Dr. Spankie, of Wolfe Island, and father of Dr. W. E. Spankie, Calgary, a former school inspector, and a recognized authority on educational questions, is a strong advocate of the Township school plan and is quite convinced that the move is in the right direction. The Township plan would not be a feasible one in Alberta, but the principle might be carried out by making school districts about equal in population to that of an Ontario Township.

The plan suggested is that each school section should elect one representative to the Board. This method would develop a similar system to the City Board of Education, and would tend to broaden the view of the local representative, who would be dealing with larger affairs than just the individual needs of his particular school section.

The District Board of Education would appeal to the better element in each section, and the work would be much more interesting to the members of the larger board. Good teachers would be given the support of the larger board, and would be free from the petty annoyances from some trustees who sometimes really over estimate their importance, and attempt to enforce the said importance upon the teacher, much to the annoyance of the latter, especially should the latter happen to be some young and ambitious lady, probably working in school for the first time.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS RETURNED BY ACCLAMATION

Mr. J. A. French, M. S. Hirdle and P. B. Young are to be congratulated upon being returned by acclamation for another term to the School Board. The members of the School Board have given the taxpayers a splendid service, especially has Mr. French, who was chairman last year and should be again for the coming year, given freely of his time, attention, and ability to carry on this very important work, so far reaching in the lives of the young people in attendance at the schools, and important to every taxpayer, when it is remembered that the school expenditures, exceed $11,000 annually, an amount which represents over fifty per cent of the total taxes collected by the Town Council.

HON. HERBERT GREENFIELD WILL VISIT DENMARK AND SWEDEN

EDMONTON, Alta.—Hon. Herbert Greenfield, former Premier of Alberta, and now Immigration Commissioner for that province for Europe, remarked that he should probably visit Denmark, Norway, and Sweden in the course of his investigations into immigration prospects. Speaking of Alberta, he said: "We feel confident that conditions in the province are ripe for an extensive policy of immigration; but before we commit ourselves we are going to be sure it is the right policy."

HOWA GOVERNOR URGES ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY PROJECT

MUSKOGEE, Mich.—"The economic feasibility, soundness and necessity and the engineering practicability of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway have been proved, and the first and major duty now confronting us is an immediate treaty with Canada providing for an early opening of the connection to the sea," President William Harding, ex-Governor of Iowa, said to the 650 delegates to the Regional Conference of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association, in session here today.

Division of lake waters by the Chicago Sanitary District was hit by William George Bruce of the Wisconsin Tidewater Association, who said: "Violation of Natural Law."

"The Chicago diversion is not only a menace to our national welfare, but a violation of natural law which is international in its scope. Half of the Great Lakes waters belong to Canada, and the United States Secretary of War, even the Congress of the United States, has any right to authorize the diversion. Canada can never fully approve the St. Lawrence waterway until the Chicago water shed is discontinued."

Canada will be unwilling to conclude a treaty with the United States to provide for a Great Lakes-to-the-sea canal via the St. Lawrence river and division of water from the Great Lakes by Chicago. It ended, according to Mr. Bruce. He said he had been apprised of Canada's attitude by F. H. Keefe.

A telegram was received from Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, saying the authoritative economic and engineering authorities had shown the "vital need and feasibility" of the project, and applauding the work of the association in awakening the interest of Middle Westerners in the operation.

The opening of the New York interests, however, the all-American route via the New York harbor canal was touched by two speakers. The first declared the opposition to the canal and without national consent, R. J. McLean of Detroit took a different attitude.

Second Ocean Port
He said: "New Yorkers, as a rule, are not so favorable to the all-American route. The St. Lawrence waterway would give them a second ocean port, Buffalo. The completion of the project, many of them believe, would cause an eventual great traffic on the large canal and result in an increase of millions of dollars in their export and internal trade."

"It would be emancipation to forty million landlocked people in the Middle West," President Harding said. Mr. Reed told the delegates that it would mean the difference between bankruptcy and a reasonable prosperity to the agricultural States or the Middle West. He said also that it would mean freight saving of 122 cents on every bushel of wheat marketed by Minnesota farmers.

Frank H. Keefe characterized as "all wrong" Premier Taschereau's attitude that development of the St. Lawrence as a seaway would mean joint control by Canada and the United States of what, after all, is a Canadian waterway.

Joint Right, He Says
"The waterway is not Canadian," said Mr. Keefe. "The right to its usage is a joint right of the two nations. This joint right has been established as the result of a century of negotiations, and was finally determined by the treaty of 1871. Premier Taschereau should stick to the historical facts, and not forget the commitments made by Canada and the United States alike and adhered to through a century of friendliness."

:::LOCAL JOTTINGS:::

John C. Davis, of Ardeno, and Miss Nora Thornton were married in Calgary on January 27th. A reception was held at the home of Mrs. F. Smith, 2829, 19th St. West, after which the happy couple left to spend their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will take up their residence at Ardeno, and their friends are wishing them all kinds of good fortune.

Sunday is a quiet day for many people, but not so with Dr. J. W. Giffen last Sunday, when he safely conducted a touring party of two from young Canadians, one at the home of Gilbert Trent, at Strathmore, and the other at the home of William Martin, at Nanaka.

Mrs. T. Gatenby and son, Norman, were Calgary visitors, and attended the play "Blossom Time," which is as popular as ever.

If you are interested in motor cars you should attend the Free lecture by a Chevrolet factory expert at the City Garage on Friday night. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Valuable prizes for lucky ticket holders and souvenirs for the ladies provided. Call up Nels White, he will explain about the free lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fisher motored to Calgary on Tuesday.

Friends of Freddie Benz, who has been on the invalid list for several days, will be glad that he is now convalescing, recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Owing to bereavement in the family of W. C. Kayest, the closing meeting in connection with the affairs of the Strathmore Cricket Club for last year has been delayed. This meeting and the annual meeting for the election of officers for 1927, will be held in the office of the Crown Lumber Co., on Saturday, February 12th, at 2:30 p.m. All members and other who are interested in the game of cricket are invited to attend.

DALEMEAD

A fine game of junior hockey was played on local ice, when the Dalemeads defeated the Gainsville Huskies, and thus starting their victorious climb by a score of 1-0 in their favor. The lone puck found its way into the goal two minutes before the end of the regular young hockey game. The preceding periods, though full of action, were scoreless. There was a large crowd present, who thanked the boys for their fine exhibition. The personnel of the teams are as follows: Gainsville Huskies—Bob Groves, goal; F. E. Keefe, center; Artie Pugh, left; M. Peterson, defense; Stewart Groves and Bill Warrack, forwards; sub: W. Riddon, Dalemeads; Lillian Gilbert, goal; George Ray, center; Jim Foley and Allan Cleveland, forwards; Colin Gibson and Lester Connor, defense; sub: J. H. Melvin.

The groom's gift to the bride was afterwards arranged with the victors, which will be staged on Glencairn last Sunday afternoon.

Members of the Dalemead Junior H.C. will present a play "Papa New Housekeeper" on St. Valentine's Eve on February 14th. The program will be followed by a chicken supper, and a Post Office will be set up to receive all the Valentines.

The Junior boys had a meeting and skating party Saturday evening.

The social evening of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. was largely attended, and while the "Whet Keene" was postponed for the program, were somewhat prevented from coming. Everyone had a good time. The program was followed by a dance which was kept up till the small hours.

STAR GAZING

wonder if some of those bright stars above me.
Have four-poster beds,
And houses and sheds
For people to live in, and work in, and sleep in;
And green fields with cattle and horses and sheep in.
But what does it matter as long as we're happy.
And doing our bit
While we wait for the spring.
For we'll laugh, and we'll work, and we'll laugh, and we'll work,
And we'll wait, and we'll wait, and we'll wait, and we'll wait,
While our hearts are other planets there whirling on high.
—Chatterbox, 1925

The friends of Mrs. Harold Bell will regret to learn that she has had to go to the Holy Cross Hospital at Calgary for treatment.

James Saunders has had completed for him, a well 147 foot deep.

The public are much pleased with the new quarters at the post office, supplied by James H. Martin. Lots of room for the public, and much greater convenience for the post office staff. The fire caused all kinds of inconvenience and extra work for the postmaster and staff, but everyone will now enjoy the new conditions.

Honorable! Horseheads! That's what the Brooks' hockey team were carrying along in addition to several rabbits feet, and a bunch of fine hockey players. In the game on Tuesday night, which was fast enough to suit everyone, the local team had a lead of one goal until the last few minutes, when Gene Groux got mixed up with himself and scored for Brooks. This "popped" the Brooks' puck chasers, and they came back with a rush and scored again, winning the game 4 to 2. Leonard Hill remarks that they had better get more horse shoes for the next game.

Mat May has been on the sick list but is again back to form and able to do justice to the regular meals a day.

You know Harold Scher, well, on February 2d, Dr. J. W. Giffen made the operation of a son at Mrs. McKenzie's Hospital. Since that date Harold only speaks to his most intimate friends.

The local Hockey Club are not at all disheartened over their defeat by Brooks on Tuesday night, the first loss of the season. On Friday night they met the Calgary Brewing team, and are looking for revenge for Tuesday's defeat.

The ceremony was performed in Wesleyan Church, by the Rev. W. E. McNeill.

The happy couple left on the west bound train for a three weeks honeymoon to be spent at Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, Spokane and Portland. The return journey they will make in the home lately occupied by Mr. Tios. H. Eves.

Congratulations and the best wishes of a host of friends are extended to the happy young couple.

REASONS FOR A MUNICIPAL HOSPITAL

Considerable discussion is now under way as to establishing a municipal hospital in the district served by the New Line. Health is a thing which is man's most valuable asset, possibly, and even probably. A municipal hospital will not bring good health to all our residents, but it is likely that one will be established at some point within the district in the near future. It must be conveniently situated so as to be readily accessible, and there are many facts to take into mind in locating it.

The municipal hospitals which are in active operation in the province are generally satisfactory, and are certainly more convenient than taking patients to large centers, which are oftentimes very inconveniently located.

After all, it is by no means always the case that the demand for hospital treatment is brought about by a fault properly laid upon the back of the patient. We have established a municipal hospital. Workmen's Compensation arrangements, which is sound in idea, and it is proper that the hospital should be municipally operated. Burdens of this nature should be kept off the churches and the hands of private enterprise should be kept off this vital necessity, also.

Dr. Alexander and McKenzie have both expressed themselves as being highly in favor of the establishing of a municipal hospital in the immediate future. If their advice is worth taking on questions of health, it would seem worth while to consider their ideas upon the arrangement for carrying on the sick and injured. The News knows of a number of instances wherein patients have died—all indications because of the delay in reaching an hospital at a distant point.

A hospital is not an institution where one may book his orders ahead, except in a very limited way, and have any degree of certainty as to not needing it at an earlier date of all. The tax on land for the maintenance of the hospital seems being paid by one who considers the benefits it brings, and, after all, it is not a luxury, but a public necessity which should be paid for by the public, and the citizens of the district be enabled to enjoy its benefits.

A municipal hospital has the best accident and disability contract beaten a mile, and few landowners could purchase such a policy for a price similar to the tax on a half-section of land.

DODGES DEATH WITHOUT A SCRATCH

ARROWWOOD, Feb. 8—John and Mrs. Mason were driving from Arrowwood to Gleichen this morning, and had the misfortune to have their car overturned on the Little Axe Hill about 10 a.m. They were driving in a Ford sedan, which explains why they had no injury, as closed cars are universally recognized as much safer than those of the open type. The hill has been very slick for some weeks due to the ice and snow which has increased the surface of the road.

The windshield, and the glass in a door were broken to bits, and the whole roof of the car torn off by the crash.

When the aqueduct (popularly known as the "flume") belonging to the Canadian Land and Irrigation Co., burst and washed out near Starke last August, much of the traffic was diverted to this hill, which has always been recognized as very dangerous. This is not the first time it has slid down the hill with great danger of overturning. This winter, and such an incident should bring to the attention, in a forceful manner, of those responsible for the damage to the road in the south further east, the town of immediate repairs. It should not require force to bring about the repairs needed to a road, which is as much used as this road will be until the completion of the New Line.

Prizes were captured by Mrs. Vigar and Mr. Clark. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Vigar, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. De Foe, Miss Nellie Gross, Mr. McCallum and Mr. Robson.

ROCKYFORD

Rockyford was given a great treat on the evening of Friday, the 4th, when the Baintree Community Club gave their play, entitled "A Clergyman's Courtship". To say that the evening was the most enjoyable one, and that, in every part the players were fully up to the high standard we had been led to expect from the glowing accounts of the rehearsal, would be misleading, as their success far surpassed our most sanguine expectations, and we are sure Mrs. Ross, who had managed the show must have been highly pleased, not only by those taking part in the play, but also by the large and appreciative audience. The house was full to capacity, and, last but not least, the Baintree Community Club building fund will benefit by no less a sum than $50. Mr. P. E. Waters, as the Rev. Arthur Greyhound, realistic in his part, and the ensemble scenes, with Miss Olivia Vaughan (played by Mrs. Waters) were most touching, and proved them to be a very talented pair of people indeed. Miss Vaughan's costumes were chosen with the very best taste, especially the black and white dress in the last scene, which was most effective. Mrs. E. Ross, in the character of Melinda Triplett, played with great vivacity, and made the most of each point, while Miss Edna Rose, as Miss Alice Greyhound, acted with great feeling and sympathy in a series of very charming scenes. Mr. P. H. MacIntyre, as Gerald Birie, was exceptionally good in his part, and Baintree are lucky to have acquired this new addition to their personnel. Mr. E. Greyhound, the club leader, was indefatigable, and his efforts were a great contribution to the success of the entertainment. Miss Agnes Van Camp, as a very up-to-date young lady, left nothing to be desired in the rendering of her part, which fully brought out the attitude of the younger generation, towards their elders, as represented by Miss Mary Polton, in the part of Mrs. Wilkins, and whom we shall hope to see again in a bigger part, for which she undoubtedly has the ability. Mrs. Van Camp, as Miss Bruchet, the organist, was absolutely true to the type she represented. Mr. D. Longbottom, as Ruben, the janitor, was a complete cure for insomnia, even now it makes us yawn to think of him. Mr. Howard Logan, as Jacob Snyder, previous manager to Miss Olivia Vaughan, followed his part with the greatest vim, and was very good indeed. This German's monstrosity and cane had almost convinced us that he was a Frenchman, had not the clear and accent proved beyond doubt, that the Frenchman was a German. However, his acting was splendid throughout. We will hope to see this very clever company again, but would wish that next time it may be in a play of British origin. It is true that art is international, but why no abroad for what we can produce at home. The play was followed by a dance, and as the weather was fine, there was a big crowd, all of whom spent a most enjoyable evening.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF TOWNS AND COMMUNITIES

Stability is the thing for which a town must strive in its development. Many small communities have been opposed to the extension of railways, or bus routes, or co-operative stores, etc., on the ground that these things would tend to develop other and more populous communities at that town's expense. This theory is not a new one, but dates back to the early days of the settling of this continent.

In a few cases isolation has enabled certain merchants to amass a considerable fortune, and they have invariably taken that fortune and retired to districts where modern improvements abound in great profusion, leaving their late customers to labor under the old handicaps. But these cases are few and are one of the exceptions which we note in history.

There is only one reason for a town's developing—that is to serve the community of which it forms a center. If it requires artificial checks to be placed upon that community to allow it to exist, then it must perish as a relic of the past, and will soon be forgotten.

Modern improvements have not tended to build any town in a position where the surrounding inhabitants will have to come unnecessarily long distances to reach its places of business. Selfishness must be overcome, and the districts be allowed to develop in the light of reason as shown through modern inventions of worth in action.

house. There were eight girls and eight boys present besides Miss Powell and Mr. Walter Gross. The evening proved very interesting. A debate was part of the entertainment provided. The subject was: "Resolved That Moving Pictures Do More Harm Than Good". Ralph Summers and Howard Crowe took the affirmative, and Ruby Clark and Dorothy Crowe the negative. The affirmative side won by a point. After supper games were played, and all the young folks had a real jolly time. The I.X.I. group C.G.I.T. girls will return the hospitality at a Valentine supper next week. Needless to say, the boys are looking forward to the affair.

LOWER FREIGHT RATES

UPON CANADIAN COAL
KEMPTVILLE.—A Canadian coal should be given a preferential freight rate to Central Canada, Premier Howard Ross stated in Ontario and Quebec, in the course of his speech at a complimentary banquet tendered to him recently by the Conservative Association of his home here.

If subsidies were necessary to bring Alberta and Nova Scotia coal to the heart of Ontario, stated the Premier, they should be provided, he said, and he believed that a bigger and more prosperous Canada would thereby be the burden.

"We must take our courage in both hands," said the Premier. "We must be down on our pockets if necessary to pay the shut."

morning train for Calgary where they will make their home. The best wishes of the community are extended to this very popular couple.

Mrs. Eva Waller, of Okotoks, has taken a position as night operator in the telephone office at Rockyford.

Mr. A. L. Patterson has returned from his trip to Saskatoon. His many friends are pleased to see him back again.

Mrs. H. Katterhagen and Mrs. Carrier have returned to their homes in Calgary, after attending the Katterhagen-Coma wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Rita's Church, Rockyford, at 9 a.m. on February 2nd, 1927, when Miss Theresa Coma was united in marriage to Mr. Irvine Katterhagen, by Rev. Father Baizer. They were attended by Miss Clara Treason and Mr. Lambert Katterhagen. The bride was charmingly gowned in a bold-derose corset dress, with a new spring hat to match. After the ceremony, the wedding party adjourned to the Katterhagen ranch, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Just the immediate friends of the couple were present. After a short honeymoon at Banff the happy couple will return to the groom's ranch at Rockyford, where they will reside. The best wishes of the whole community are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Katterhagen.

A film showing Denmark's beauty spots, her agricultural activities, and many of her manufacturing and industrial interests was shown in the S. & S. Hall, last Sunday afternoon to a capacity audience. Many of the places depicted were familiar to those in the audience, and to those who have not had the privilege of visiting Denmark the scenes were a revelation.

Most of the children of Standard and many grownups too, are mourning the loss of "Old Black Joe", a pet crow who belonged to the Spar's children. He was such a friendly fellow, and made daily calls at many of the homes in town where there were children playing. Joe came to an untimely end one night last week when some cats found him sleeping, and made short work of the popular bird.

GARNET WHEAT HAS SUSTAINED
ITS REPUTATION

OTTAWA, Ont.—Garnet wheat has proved itself equal to its reputation, says the experts of the Federal Dept. of Agriculture. Hon. W. L. Moberly, Minister of Agriculture, avers that the reports from scores of farmers who grow Garnet wheat last year are unanimous on the one vital claim of the wheat—that it ripens ten days earlier than Marquis. It is, therefore, highly suitable for growing along the northern littoral of the wheat belt, and it is to farmers in those northern latitudes that the Government sent seed for planting. Yields have also been high. One farmer, having only twelve acres available for sowing, harvested 64 bushels to the acre—a crop worth $2,000.

MANY MAJOR PLAYERS ARE SIGNING UP

NEW YORK.—Some business men do not all believe that the recent baseball scandal will make baseball unpopular, and neither do the players, but for some reason the hired help of the major league club owners are signing new contracts with alacrity and smiles.

Before Rogers Hornsby was traded out of the management of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals to the Giants, and when the New York Yanks heard a rumor that Babe Ruth thought he might be worth $100,000 per on a new contract, there were good reasons to believe that there might be a concerted hold-out number this spring.

Hornsby couldn't get what he wanted from the St. Louis club, and when he was given passage up the river to New York it was thought that John McGraw would have a job more difficult than winning a pennant in getting the entire elephant of the league on paper.

McGraw and Hornsby, however, reached an agreement on terms after a series of about ten minutes. McGraw's troubles seemed sure when he manipulated a trade by which he secured Burly Deane from the Brooklyn club, one of the most dictatorial holdouts in baseball, but the Giants contract came back in the end.

The St. Louis Browns were thought to be in a mess when George Sisler was reported as the manager and was threatened with a transfer to some less desirable club. Sisler signed a new contract as a first baseman for $15,000, which was said to have been the price of $10,000.

Carl Mays, who used to give the Yankees gray hairs when it came to contract time, was one of the Cincinnati Reds to get on paper, and Art Nehf, who has never been hard to handle, accepted terms before he saw the contract.

Zack Wheat, released by Brooklyn, took a job with Connie Mack after a short telephone talk.

Troubles of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals, and Rogers Hornsby, their former manager, are multiplying.

Grover Cleveland Alexander, pitching hero of the 1926 world's series, was added to the list of Cardinal holdouts. Hornsby, who got $75,000 by Frank L. Moore, horse race betting commissioner of Newport, Ky., and Hornsby threatened to sue President Sam Houston to compel him to declare back dividends on Cardinal stock, 1,107 shares of which Hornsby holds.

The veteran Alexander, it was learned, returned his 1927 contract to Houston provided because the document promised for no increase in salary, and that he had been assigned to a contract with the Cubs.

"Old Pete" was the third Cardinal right-hander to refuse the terms offered for next season. The others were Joe Haines and Elmer Hunsicker, who together won 33 victories last year.

COEUR D'ALENE WINS
DAVENPORT TROPHY

COEUR D'ALENE.—With many former Canadian hockey players in their lineup, the Coeur d'Alene Astorians defeated the Spokane Hockey club team, 3 to 2, in an exciting game at the Manito park pond last Sunday afternoon. As a result of their victory, the Coeur d'Alene Eskimos will be presented with the L. M. Davenport trophy cup, emblem of the amateur hockey championship of the United States.

The scoring for the winners was done by Willie Jean Faulkner and Earl Faulkner. Carl Quakenbush, Hillside high school football coach, was the referee for two periods, but played a good game for Spokane in the third period.

On the winning team were three old Strathmore boys, J. J. Whyte, Earl Faulkner and Jean Faulkner. Sixteen years ago the Faulkner boys' father help build the Pink Edward Hotel.

better in Canada than in the Argentine, was the report brought back by W. J. Jackman, director of Alberta Wheat Pool, who spent four months in the Argentine country investigating agricultural conditions. For example, he said, the Argentine production averaged 15.2 bushels per acre over a period of years, and at the same time the production in Western Canada averaged 18 bushels per acre. The Argentine wheat being also sold in connection with that of the Canadian farmers.

REFUTES IDEA THAT

THIS AGE IS ALL WRONG

The Rev. Dr. Slater, of the Old St. Andrew's church, Toronto, who recently achieved an outstanding honor, not only for himself but for the whole United Church of Canada, in being invited to give the Yale lectures to the Divinity School of Yale University, delivered a sermon recently, which refutes to a great extent the prevailing idea that this age is all wrong.

The text chosen for this discourse was taken from Eccles. VIII, 10: "Say not thou, what is the cause that the former days were better than these? For thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this."

Dr. Slater opened his remarks by saying: "The tendency of advancing years is to carp at the succeeding race, and this has been indulged in since the days of Adam, but this action is particularly vigorous just now. The movements of change is probably more rapidly than in any recent time. The young lady of 1877 and the girl of 1927 may be the same in her inner make-up, but she certainly is not in her outward appearance. So there comes the challenge of the new by the old, and the reiterated cry of the 'good, old times'."

In a contrast of the past with the present, Dr. Slater asked the question, "Would you put the hands of the clock back if you could?" He pointed out that the age before us was a very great age in literature, science and industrial achievement, and that greatness was even reflected in the appearance of such men as Tennyson, Leighton and Words. Beautiful simplicity was shown in the 'melody of their poetry. Parental authority existed to a thorough degree, and there was a consequent environment of principle, both in politics and in religion. Such men as Gladstone and Bright attracted the public majority by pointing out the better side of life. Sentiment went. But throughout all this there ran a hand in hand with selfishness. Evils were not dealt with but they were hidden. There was a worship of false respectability, especially in evangelistic circles, and individualism ran riot, when Lord Palmerston stood for the British lion and John Bright opposed the Factory Act. In those times children working fifteen and eighteen hours a day, and little did the young 'dandies' care whether they did or not. In the old days they had great men, but they could not appreciate these and their destinies. They stoned the prophets and poisoned Socrates. Murder was a finer art in Florence and throat-slitting in the days of Elizabeth. Today tolerance and compassion have righted many things, and the result is that countless lives are saved because through compassion the medical science has learned of the power of an anesthetic.

Dr. Slater concluded by saying that religion comes to us not as a new way, "wherefore have hope."

KEOMA

The people of the Bruce Lakes district, east of Keoma, have organized into a literary and athletic club, operating under the name of The Bruce Lakes Athletic Association. This organization takes in a large district and we are well away for a good time for this winter. Under the auspices of the club a picnic and dance was staged the night of the 21st. Once more the Bruce Lakes school was lit up for a jolly good time. It might be interesting to outsiders to note that these picnics lasted good.

On January 22nd the hockey boys headed for Dalroy, where they bumped up against the confounded team of Cheadle and Dalroy. They caught them in a good game, ending it with a draw of two each.

The evening of the 25th Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shepard were surprised by the crowd demanding entrance to their home for a few hours. A real enjoyable evening ensued, and our official manager, if any outsiders want to which at these ice-landscapes, talk to him.

On the afternoon of the 29th, a team of rubber chasers came from Irian, and a fast game was played. The Bruce Lakes team got away, and it ended with a score of 7 to 9 in favor of the local boys.

The U.F.W.A. held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Galloway, who was the delegate to the convention at Edmonton. The meeting was well attended. After a much-enjoyed lunch, Mrs. Galloway gave her report, which all agreed was very interesting.

Mrs. Bellamy is staying for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. V. Kingston. We are all pleased to welcome back our friends.

The annual meeting of the School Fair Association was held at the home of Mrs. E. Corbett on Thursday, February 3rd. The meeting was well represented by most of the districts. The secretary's report showed a good balance on the right side. After the ordinary routine of business was gone through, the following officers were selected: President, Miss M. E. Hall; Keoma; Vice-president, Mr. O. Red, Irian; Secretary Treasurer, Mr. E. Corbett, Kathryn.

Mrs. J. G. Hanby and son and daughter were visitors to Mrs. L. Holter, of Vulcan, and arrived back after many varied experiences on the road.

The U.F.A. expect the car of steel from Wembley to arrive next week.

The U.F.A. are holding a membership drive on February 26th. Speakers from the U.F.A. and Wheat Pool will address the meeting prior to dancing, which commences at 5 o'clock. If this dance is as successful as their last, we can promise you a very good time.

CHEADLE

Miss Mary Craig and Miss Vera Dawson spent the week end in Calgary.

Cheadle School District voted for a two-room school by a 20-2 vote. This is to give students who pass the eighth grade a chance to be at home as two or three grades of high school will be taught here. The school will be re-opened during the holidays.

Dalroy hockey team defeated Cheadle 3-1 on Thursday, in a rather rough game, but otherwise it proved good and fast.

The Ladies Club old time dance on Friday, the 11th, is going to be a luncheon, so don't forget to be on the job.

Ray Miller and Ray Melvin attended a convention of Chrysler dealers in Calgary on Monday and Tuesday, and report a very instructive and entertaining meeting (entertaining is a good word).

Mr. J. G. Miller will under the doctor's care in Calgary, and is slowly improving.

Expect to Span Continent by Air

Strathmore to Winnipeg or Vancouver or Toronto by air? By 1929 it is expected that air connections will be established between the east and the west of the Dominion. This year air service is being contemplated between Chicomit, Quebec, to Ottawa; in 1928 it is expected that it will be extended to Toronto, 1929 will see it reaching Winnipeg and in 1930 it is expected that the planes will go as far as Vancouver, thus linking the east with the west. If any Strathmore people wish to make connections with the airplane service it will be necessary to go by rail or auto to Edmonton. These planes too will carry mail and other cargo, besides the passengers. The demand for airplane service is the west from Kingston is as yet hardly enough to induce the owners to change their route so as to make connections with Kingston.

While the vast expanse of country between the Pacific and Atlantic oceans will eventually be spanned, the people behind the airway company do not propose to leap headlong at the task, but will proceed cautiously, for their first year's programme calls for a 500-mile trip daily, between Chicomit, a hundred odd miles below Quebec, and Ottawa, the Canadian capital.

In the event of the first year's operations being attended with success, the line will be stretched out to include Toronto, 540 miles from Quebec, during the second 12 months, while the following year Winnipeg will be the terminus, the western city being the halfway point between Halifax and Vancouver.

The fourth year will see the planes make Vancouver their final landing place, on the ocean trip, and should everything go well, the company may stretch its way east as far as Halifax.

The Coopers, of Montreal, a leading surgeons, who has long been closely connected with aviation, is behind the new company, which will be capitalized at $200,000, and which will start with a four machine service between Chicomit and Ottawa. The planes will make stops at Riviere du Loup, one of the most fashionable summer resorts in the province of Quebec, at Quebec, the ancient capital of Canada, at Montreal, the metropolis of the Dominion, and at Ottawa, the Canadian capital.

All Devices fr Safety

Several additional features of safety, in addition to radio and all of the present day devices for safeguarding human lives, will be installed on the planes for while they are flying over the St. Lawrence they will be no further than eight or ten feet above the surface of the river, while in addition to the four planes with which it is planned to start the service, the company will have two relief planes, so that in the event of accidents help would be on the way within a few minutes.

Another feature, and possibly the most important, is that a new non-inflammable fuel is to be used in the planes. The name of this fuel has not been made public, but is stated that it will not catch fire under any consideration, and that the only way in which a plane could be damaged, except by engine trouble, would be by an explosion.

The planes proposed for the flight will cost $20,000 each, and will have a capacity of six people, as well as the space for a fair amount of cargo.

Will Seek Mail Subsidy

The founders of the service will apply to the federal government for supplies to carry mail, and should they be granted the contract, 500 lbs. of mail will be carried in each plane. At least, there will be space for that much.

CLEAN UP YOUR BILLS

PAY YOUR GROCER, BUTCHER, BAKER, DEALERS IN SHOES, DRESS GOODS, MEN'S WEAR, CLOTHING, HARDWARE, AUTOMOBILES. THEY IN TURN WILL PAY THE WHOLESALERS AND THE WHOLESALERS WILL PAY THE MANUFACTURERS. THE MANUFACTURERS WILL START THE WHEELS TURNING AGAIN AND PUT MORE MEN AND WOMEN TO WORK. A CLEAN SLATE MEANS CONTENTMENT, COURAGE, OPTIMISM, A SPIRIT FIRED BY THE SATISFACTION OF BEING ABLE TO LOOK EVERY MAN IN THE EYE. BUSINESS IS ON THE UPSWING. TO SPEED ITS RECOVERY AND RETURN TO FULL-TIME WORK AND WAGES, CALLS FOR EXTRA EXERTION OF EVERYONE. BILLS PAID UP GIVE A NEW LEASE OF LIFE—SEND FEAR AND DESPONDENCY SCURRYING TO THE SHAADOWS OF YESTERDAY AND OPEN THE SHUTTERS OF SELF-DOUBT TO SUNSHINE, CHEER AND SELF-ASSURANCE. IT'S CONTAGIOUS. THE MERCHANT SAYS TO THE WHOLESALER, "COLLECTIONS ARE FINE—BUSINESS IS BETTER—BOOK ME UP FOR MORE GOODS." THE WHOLESALER SAYS TO THE MANUFACTURER: "Collections are improving, business is better—increase my orders for Spring and Summer goods." The manufacturer says to the banker: "Collections are improving, business is coming back speedily to normal—I want sufficient credit to start the factory going right away to put the staff back on full time and pay—orders are coming—they must be filled—business is lively at last. Everybody is working, and the farmer will get his share, through increased demand for his products."

Would you like to share in such conditions? Of course, you would. Now is the time to do your bit—the sooner everyone starts, the sooner the good news indicated above will be a reality.

WILL ACCOMPANY
FAMOUS CHAIR TO CALGARY

The Dean of Windsor, Doctor Albert Victor Haulton, C.V.O., F.H.A.S., who will accompany the Westminster Abbey-Windsor Castle chair as one of the most outstanding figures in the ecclesiastical of England, and of English life in the wider sense.

He has passed through various church appointments brilliantly, until he is now Dean of the Chapel of Saint George of Windsor, which stands with in the ancient walls of Windsor Castle, the oldest royal chapel still inhabited in the world.

The dean is closely in touch with his life in all its forms. He is a traveller: America, Spain, Denmark, Germany, France, Italy, and the respected villages of Great Britain follow form a background to his knowledge.
He is a great speaker because he is a natural speaker, with humor and wisdom pleasantly associated. Indeed his lectures might be said to achieve the Shakespearean ideal of pleasure and instruction hand in hand.

A position of Queen Victoria and a member of a family associated with the royal household for generations, he is a nephew of Lord Elgin, the earlier governor of Canada, and of Lady Augusta Stanley, friend and associate of Queen Victoria and later, wife of Westminster.

The dean is himself chaplain to the King and regent of the Order of the Garter, that magnificent order, which runs like a golden thread through the fabric of British history.

But his experience and knowledge are not confined to his office and decorations. He is a man of great culture, knowledge of art, taste of decoration, but he has also the knowledge and understanding that comes to one through long experience of the poorer people resident of the Tyneside London's poorer districts, and the industrial centers of the midlands, where he worked so diligently as he has among the more splendid surrounding of Kinnis. His personality, in which knowledge is enriched by his more and understanding, will illumine every function, sacred or social,
of the tour of the chair in Canada.

FIFTY HEIRIDIAN FAMILIES WILL COME TO ALBERTA

EDMONTON, ALA.—Fifty Heiridian families from the British Isles will be established in a new colony at Saddle Lake, early this spring. This will be the second settlement of its kind in this province—the first has been established north of Vermilion.
Buildings are now being erected on fifty farms at Saddle Lake. It is expected that new arrivals will take over holdings there just as soon as necessary arrangements can be made.
